

If you have ever placed in the top 10%, in any category, at any of the events listed below, you are not eligible to participate in American Marksman. Please note that for USPSA, the cutoff is the top 15%.

Amateur Trapshooting Association - AIM Grand Championships

CMP - CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

GSSF - Any GSSF event listed on the 'Match Info' tab on www.gssfonline.com. Note: This rule does not apply to GSSF 'Indoor League' matches.

ICORE - ICORE National Championship

IDPA - Indoor National Championship, US National Championship

International Handgun Metallic Silhouette Association - IHMSA World Championship

IPSC National Championship – Any

National Benchrest Shooters Association - Long Range Nationals, SR Score Nationals, LR Score Nationals, Group Nationals

National Skeet Shooting Association - World Skeet Championships

National Sporting Clays Association - National Sporting Clays Championship

NRA - National Matches at Camp Perry, National Small-bore Championship, Collegiate Rifle National Championship, Collegiate Pistol National Championship, Precision Pistol Competition (National Police Shooting Championships), Action Shooting National Championship

NSSF Rim fire Challenge - World Championship

3 Gun - any 3 gun event that is not a one day match or is classified as a 'championship'. Note: this does not include regularly scheduled local matches.

Precision Rifle Series - PRS Championship Match

SASS - National Championships Winter Range, Mounted Shooting National Championships

Steel Challenge Shooting Association - SCSA World Championship

US Clay Target Association - USA Shooting National Championship

USPSA National Championships - Multi-Gun Nationals, Single Stack Nationals, Revolver Nationals, Production Nationals, Carry Optic Nationals, Limited Nationals, Open/Limited 10 Nationals. Note: For USPSA, the cutoff extends to the top 15%, instead of 10%.